Article 2 :

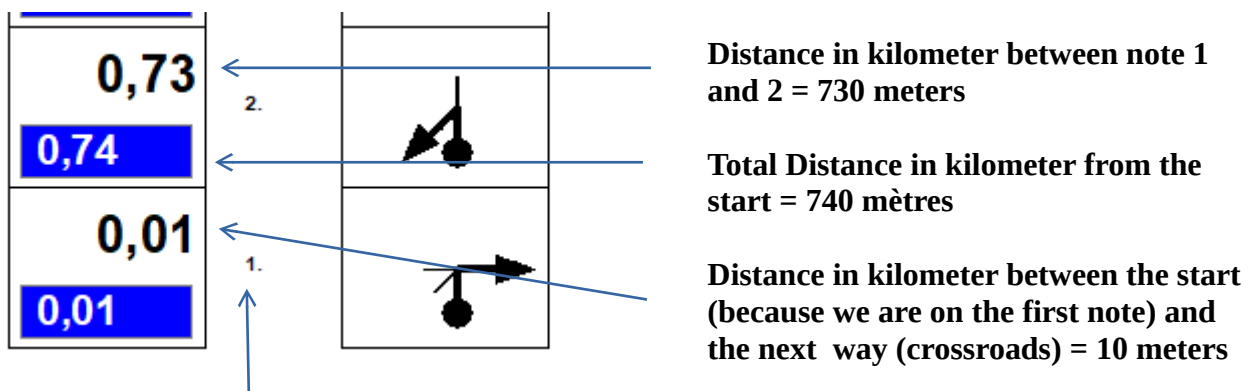

The roadbook is a ball-arrow type used in rally and by the old bikers years ago, a long time before the GPS birth.

Every square on the roadbook (= NOTE) represent simplified crossroads or a peculiar specification of a place.

- The « ball » represents your position on the road.
- The way to follow is indicated by the thick line between the « ball » and the « arrow ».
- The thin lines represents the other roads of the crossroads .

The roadbook is of the type (arrow – meter) like this before :

Distance in kilometer between note 1 and 2 = 730 meters

Total Distance in kilometer from the start = 740 mètres

Distance in kilometer between the start (because we are on the first note) and the next way (crossroads) = 10 meters

Number of the note

The first note take place on the left and in back of the first page of the RB.

This RB will then be read from the back to the top and from the left to the right side of the page, each page having two columns of notes.
